

Please do not weaken the Indiana no-call list that allows the Consumer Banking Association to contact me on either my mobile phone or on my home phone. I like many others are well aware of where we can go if we need financial assistance in any form. I believe that this act by the CBA will prey on vulnerable people which includes the elderly and the inexperienced young who do not yet know the ramifications of using credit unwisely.